

19th Australian Organic Geochemistry Conference

Fremantle, 4-7 December 2016

Palaeoclimates, Environments, Ecosystems & Our Resources

You are invited to participate in the 19th Australian Organic Geochemistry Conference held in Fremantle, 4-7 December 2016, the theme of which is “Palaeoclimates, Environments, Ecosystems & Our Resources”.

The conference will take place at the Esplanade Hotel and will begin with an ice-breaker on the Sunday evening. The conference dinner will be held on Tuesday 6th.

A field trip to Rottnest Island is planned for Thursday 8th December, pricing to be confirmed depending on interest.

Conference themes:

Modern and ancient environments
Palaeoclimate
Petroleum geochemistry
Geomicrobiology
Organic-inorganic interfaces
New tools and technologies
Other (e.g. minerals)

15th July 2016: abstract submission deadline

1st Sep 2016: early bird registration deadline

One-day registration is available at AUD 300

Early bird registration fees

Full	AUD 485*
Student	AUD 240*

*includes icebreaker event and conference dinner

Hosted by

Curtin University

